

The Sisterhood of the Planetary Water Rites

November 2010 Newsletter

Greetings Dear Brothers and Sisters:

This is the time for giving and to show compassion for those less fortunate than ourselves. By going out into our communities to help the needy is more rewarding than words can express. Helping in the Food Kitchen and feeding those that appreciated every little thing that was given to them showed a growing compassion that became a give-away of heart...for those that gave and those that were receiving. For the communities that do not have a food kitchen to help feed those in need, maybe you could start one! There are programs out there for just this cause, ready to have a people take charge and make a difference.....Blessings....Happy Give-A-Way Day!

Messages from the Grandmothers.....mainly the Apache Grandmothers..from November 21st to Dec. 4th
It is the Time for Coyote Cycle Energy..near perfect time. ...a time of healing both playful and dedicated.
Committed yet open to the unknown

The first four phases of Creation have ended changing Mothers grid. Life germinates in a new way, and is ready to make its first appearance. All Seeing Ones have come to us to help us through our growth...we are beginning to dance, sing, drum, pray together in a joyous of ways. We are changing with our Mother as we dance we maintain the balance with her grid....(the dance of the Cherokee, however way you choose to do the many variations.) They are helping us to return home to the stars....not visible or known they are mysterious spirit worlds. Grandmother Bear helps us to understand that we must learn a new way. We along with our Mother are entering the fifth World...a total of Seven Worlds throughout our evolutionary development.....The White Buffalo are guided with invisible forces invoked to manifest higher powers so that we are guided in our never-ending journey. Let us flow as tides into the changes that will soon feel natural ... as the butterfly emerges from the cocoon, "We have been working to attain this time.....the answer to ..."We have come into our power, now what?"

Dear Ones:

The Grandmother that is keeper of the November Moon in Walks Tall Woman....she burns a white candle to guide us to her. She teaches us balance, truth and ability with agility to change. She gifts us with information as we need.....going deep within our heart of knowing....that inner flame that burns with the need for knowledge is nurtured and stoked with as much as we can maintain in a good way.
Blessings, Grandmother Whitedeer

Message from our Sister Kaariina in Canada:

This FULL MOON LODGE honors the prayers and requests to be in service of the Vision for the Planet.

We are here to co create a community of support, openness, sharing, seeing and being seen.

We all bring flame and light and add to the creation of the Sacred Fire.

We ask for acceptance; for curiosity and reverence for the unknown as we step into Sacred Space.

We hold these visions for the planet: Love , respect for Mother Earth and therefore, for our own birth mothers, for all women; the realization that exhales are others' inhales so that we are here to be responsible for how we influence others.

We are here to readjust to the calibrations and cycles of LUNAR TIDAL TIMES< moving away from MALE SOLAR RAY TIMES. This shifting affects women profoundly for our moon times, or bleeding is touched by these . We are the biological basins, in our pelvis, of the oceanic and lunar times.

*for men living with, wanting to dwell in harmonic resonance with women, the FULL MOON LODGE< open to both men and women, offers this Great TEACHING:

To appreciate the surrender, the choices and the sacrifices of the Birth Mother

To realize that these tidal times have been relatively unconscious within families and intimate relationships

To acknowledge that men are also affected by this WAVING CYCLE and to begin to attune to these

To remember that we are all of the ocean, all of the earth and that what we have done to her in all her forms, we do to our FUTURES!

These are the ethics and principles of Moon Lodges.

Reindeer Moon Lodge is held by Kaariina of the Saarinen Clan; Sami in her Mother's Line.

I am dedicated to serving as a Keeper for these Moon Lodges in order to honor and respect our Mother's Line of Teachings

And to continue the healing of the Hearts of Women, Sanctifying the womb, revering blood times.

As a Sister of the Planetary Water Rites, we have chosen the shores of the Cheakamus that these Rites honor our watery flowing ways and clear the pathways for future waters all the way to the oceans!

I have placed information within this Newsletter that was sent to me to review. Hope that some of the articles will trigger a spark of interest. If you find something or know of something that we could all benefit by please send it to me so that I can review it to be place within a Newsletter.

ENERGY SURGES ‘JUST KEEP ON A COMING’

As received by Gillian MacBeth-Louthan

I don't know about you all but I am having another 'on the road to 2012' type paramount energy surge. we all are being pulled into a swirling black hole awareness with the thought of being completely alone in a rather crowded world. So many have been aware for so long we do not know any other way of life. Spiritual awareness is a normal part of life. so many are prepared and practiced in the art of conscious awareness and creation while driving on the road to enlightenment.

We know we are lightworkers with a purpose but there are still days that we hang on by a single damaged hair. We know that we are not like others except for the way we look. We know that we will shift the outcome of a prophesy that comes unraveled and then re-sews its shapeshifter self into another possibility. We watch everything and everyone for a sign, a message, and a truth that will continue to invisibly escort us down the path of enlightenment like a white feather floating down at every turn of awareness.

We look deep into the eyes of all we meet knowing good and well any person could be a saint a sinner an angel or a decoy. We discern every drop of energy that comes our way like a Mixmaster that examines its fruit before it becomes an emulsified smoothie.

We are the sentinels of light waiting for what is to come in any and all forms, it may take. We look for the cosmic code, an eclipse, a planetary lineup, stars exploding, something, any type of breadcrumb to lead us down the right path. We sit high on our Mt. Olympus awareness looking above and below the clouds of illusion. There are days we think we are truly crazy for such thoughts and in the next breath, we get an undeniable proof, a new clue and the game starts again. Like well-dressed Bobbies in front of the Queen Mums abode, we wonder about the secrets we are guarding and the truths within our heart.

Between now and the end of the year 2010 we will have a few more energetic hoops to jump through. The wonderful planet mercury goes retrograde December 10-29, 2010. May the saints be with us as we visit the ghosts of Christmas past thru the looking glass of many lifetimes. It will not just be one past /per person/ per holiday/ but several layers like a cosmic croissant. Food may fly as poltergeist like activity may enter the scene of many a family gathering as the great-great great grandparents make an appearance.

On 12-21-2010, we have the first of 2 eclipses (Lunar Eclipse on 12-21-2010 in Gemini. Solar Eclipse on Jan 4, 2011 in Capricorn) The eclipse of 12/21/2010 escorts us into a 2 year power surge until 12/21/2012. it is a 3-3-3 energy. This number offers you a choice. The holy trinity is activated within the tetrahedron (3 sided pyramid)in your DNA structure. This number offers an opportunity to connect with highly evolved spiritual beings / masters/angels/Christ. The trinity is the holiness within all of your choices. Your body, mind, spirit in agreement with your Soul's evolution. Within this number you are not allowed to straddle the razor blade fence of indecision. Connection with the wisdom of the Oversoul and seeing the sacredness in all of your choices no matter what the outcome.

12-21-2010 is a place where the numerical status of planet earth comes to an immediate turning point. Well Exceeding the speed limits of the turn stile one will be catapulted forward into the echo of every past thought and deed. A perpetual place of transformation held captive by all energies that are and have been aligned with the host human.

An expansion that is introduced from a place where worlds and stars merge is given as the gift of hope to humanity. A celebratory creation comes as it did once before.

What was once christed is crowned King of Light moving from a place of the sun/son. Hope is imbued with science as more and more of what one believes in their soul comes to past and present. You'll see it when you believe it is shouted from the rooftops of humanity. Cellular intelligence declares its independence from circumstance, trial and error. No time to sit and ponder with the scholars as they rock upon their hunches.

Right comes from the left of humanness as internal circuitry reacts to the luminous downloading. Photonic particles are created as once was seen in fantasy, as life moves closer and closer to a dialogue with space without time. 'Make it so' is echoed in the halls of time as everyone is asked to participate in this next creational dance. The Achilles heels/heals of many will ache with prayers as they are brought to their emotional knees in order to receive communion with FIRST LIGHT. Humbleness allows an opening in the canyon of self that once dead ended and echoed of wrong choices. The impassable mountain responds to true emotion from the deep clear well of caring. Hollowness will not be seen as a friendly gesture as many still continue to serve self at the cafeteria of denial.

You are asked to become the healer, you are asked to become the scholar. You are asked to become all that you shirk. You are asked to make personal decisions that even Christ himself would fret over. You are being pulled away from your personal line in the sand and taken to a new beach where your footsteps will count. You are asked to become more than you ever thought possible! You are asked to increase your belief factor in yourself and all of your abilities. You are asked to redesign yourself in a collage of life imitating art. You are asked to step up to the plate and sup upon what is needed to be done, let it fuel your life force. Instead of allowing life and her daily deeds to suck all of your energy allow it to give to you increased energy from all circumstances that surround you. Stop whining about what has be-fallen you and see it as a heavenly helping hand, a piece of the soul puzzle you seek to fit the picture in your heart.

The Solar Eclipse on January 4, 2011 is an 1-4-4 star seed activation point. These energies allow you entrance into star vibrations that help you to shift your future by making higher choices within your creational field. This eclipse comes to teach us about our stellar connection and the 144 starseeds that run within our DNA. They help us to remember the inherent light within all that appears dark. They hold the matter of luminescence, a light that is alive and constantly changing in form and appearance. When man was first discovered on Earth he was primitive of nature. Advanced beings came to earth as the giants of the old testament and Egyptian lore and married the fair maidens of earth. Thus the stars were seeded into the flesh of mankind.

The 144 star seed activation is really the language of light from the stars that comes to speak to us directly in a form that can be absorbed. No more encrypted codes that can only be deciphered by the gods but a new underlying simplicity to the pattern that untangles the DNA. Finally taming that which was previously mustang within us with a soft hand and a loving whisper. We are finally ready to biologically instruct the way we were born to do.

The 144 vibration A creates a new entrance thru the old neuro-pathways as the higher vibratory light goes hand in hand with the new neuron functions, allowing the dimensions to meld and become Seeable. All situations that have you coming undone are holograms of distortion projected by what feels a need to be seen. Problems come to move you through sections of time into a cleared aspect of your own truth.

144 also vibrates at a Nine frequency. Cosmic and personal completion, The End! Entering the next level of love, of heart, of soul and service to the planetary evolution through healing self. Free-falling from the height of the nine into the next level of Light. Entry and exits all in the same breath. A quantum leap into unknown gifts comes through the nine. Are you ready to see and be more than you are at this minute of time? Nine is the photo finish on the heavenly line of multiple choices. If you believe you have won, you have.

Thanks to you, 17-year-old Mucee has clean drinking water for the first time! He used to travel nine miles to collect water that wasn't even safe. See what daily life in rural Kenya is like for Mucee: "It is now 6:30 a.m., and Mucee must run carefully so not to step on a snake along the narrow path to school. He is just on time before the morning bell rings and the teacher starts caning those who come after 7:00 a.m..." Full story.

When battling melanoma, Bill Lindberg used CaringBridge to stay connected and has graciously given back to CaringBridge as a four-time donor.

"I knew how valuable CaringBridge has been for me," says Bill. "I fully appreciated that the uplifting energy I was receiving from my CaringBridge site was at least as valuable to my immune system as any medication I would have taken."
