

SISTERHOOD FOR PLANETARY WATER RITES AND THE NEW EARTH TIMES NEWSLETTER

MARCH 2012

Greetings to All! Happy Spring! We have entered a time of New Beginnings, of planting the seeds of Intention and Inspiration which we will nourish and nurture Lovingly throughout the coming months. What is Inspiring you this Spring to “plant”? Perhaps taking a step forward regarding that creative endeavor you have been holding on to? Maybe spending more SoulSelf time in Nature? Whatever it may be, get going! On that note there are some upcoming amazing events that need to be mentioned here....

A group of Sisters from France are arranging to join the 13 Indigenous Grandmothers in Montana this Summer. These Sisters are from the Sisterhood of Planetary Water Rites. They intend to be a part of the Council from July 26th until the 28th. (The Council will meet until the 29th). This gathering of the Grandmothers is in honor of Grandmother Margaret Behan and all her Cheyenne-Arapaho people (as stated on their website, <http://www.grandmotherscouncil.org/events>). It will take place at the Northern Cheyenne Reservation, Lame Deer, Montana. The topic at this gathering is Gratitude Brings Freedom. There is a list of ongoing happenings in April and through July on the website, so take a peek.

Earth Day celebrations will be taking place all around the world next month. On April 22nd, Sunday, there will be such a celebration at the Dragon’s Egg Studio in Ledyard, Connecticut. At 1 pm there will be “Earth Day Egg”. I am not familiar with the details of what this includes, but you are welcome to go to the website <http://www.dragonseggstudio.org/> to find out more.

This month, Marilyn, whose Messages appear on the website onenessforall.com, allowed us to share the most recent of Messages as channeled through her by the Arcturian Group:

MARCH 11, 2012

Dear ones, we come to tell you of the light we see emanating from your planet in an ever increasing intensity. So many are awakening and beginning to understand the bigger picture. So many are beginning to see through the lies and games of those who wish to keep you in bondage and ignorant of your true selves . Do not get hung up on the fear and negativity you may become aware of, but instead try very hard to use that which you become aware of for practice in keeping your energy and consciousness immersed in truth, for this is what will change world consciousness. Your energy of light affects those around you and then will affect the next for all are actually ONE.

In oneness you do not lose your individuality, but begin to understand that all individuals are within and of the ONE. Many fear losing their individuality as they evolve because this concept has been presented in some teachings and when understood through an third dimensional consciousness, it could be interpreted that way. The truth is that each of you is a vital piece within the whole (Omnipresent Divine Consciousness) much like a jigsaw puzzle with each piece being very important.

The time is drawing very close when you will see and hear information directly, dear ones. Many of those watching, are awaiting the correct time to appear and help, but world energy is not yet ready. There are still many living in the old energy of fear, not quite ready to accept the reality of other nations upon other planets. Much is taking place that you know nothing about because your news does not tell you everything, however that will also change.

This is a grand time for all privileged to be on earth. Many have come simply to assist in your transformation to a higher dimensional planet. Many of your children are here with no karma or third dimensional lessons to be learned, but simply to add their light to the process. Try not to push these unusual children into the conventional boxes that society often wishes to place people in, for in doing so you confuse and hold back these dear ones. Much of what seems important to the third dimensional consciousness, resonates as obsolete and irrelevant to these evolved souls--however, not yet fully mature, they can't quite figure out why they are different. Parents need to understand that these children need love, acceptance, and guidelines. Never talk down to or use old outdated modes of discipline with them for this will cause them to simply shrink back from what they do not resonate with but also do not yet understand. Many of those termed "ADD" are simply bored as they have already evolved beyond what they are expected to be learning in mostly obsolete school systems.

We wish to talk to you about ascension. Many believe that ascension means a sudden lifting with lots of fan fare into a new world. Ascension is a gradual awakening process. As your consciousness becomes enlightened with ever more truth, it manifests as an ever more enlightened world. Your job is to keep practicing, which means living each truth you become aware of, centering within, and connecting with your higher selves through meditation. This process begins to bring all parts together as one--the higher self, soul, and individuality and this comprises your journey to becoming an enlightened being.

Meditation is important because it opens the door to your higher self and says, "I am ready, give me more". It demonstrates an intention to evolve and allows more truth and information to flow to you. Often an individual will experience some new awareness at a later date and often when least expected, but each new awareness represents the fruitage from the opening of spiritual channels through meditation. Meditation does not have to be the difficult and structured experience that most of you have been taught. Those techniques were necessary in order to move a student from heavy third dimensional energy into the higher frequencies but those higher frequencies are now here. Try not to look at meditation as a difficult chore, but simply as the activity of resting in the space between thoughts in an awareness of "I and the father are one". This then establishes your connection, and these moments will get longer as you practice.

Many of you are feeling the higher frequencies intensely now and are beginning to experience a sense of detachment from the things and people in your lives. Try not to force yourself back into how things were before, believing that this sense of detachment means you no longer love this person or that. It simply means you are graduating--moving beyond the need for anything outside of yourself. The bonds that have held you in a false sense of the world are dissolving. Detachment does not mean a lack of love, it means a lack of bondage to something or someone. Love then becomes more clean and pure; not based on some perceived personal need.

This false sense of love still pervades many of your relationships whether of family, marriage, or friendship. It manifests as an individual's need for others to be, say, or do, exactly as the individual believes they should in order to be loveable or to satisfy some imagined and very skewed concept of love. This false sense of love simply serves to people push away, for all souls feel the need to be free, to be loved and validated for who they are.

Unconditional love is a love without strings and allows freedom of expression to all. To hold another in bondage to one's concepts, needs, desires or expectations is not love. This is the lesson of detachment; the realization that all are already whole, complete, and perfect and that nothing or no one outside of yourself can change that.

You are learning the true meaning of love which is the connecting energy between all facets and expressions of ONE OMNIPRESENT, OMNISCIENT, OMNIPOTENT DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS. We are the Arcturian Group 3/11/12

Wishing everyone Peace and Abundant well-being this Spring and always! ~ ELIF